

RICHMOND INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL MADE IN LONDON

BETWEEN MAY – JULY 2019

Spend your summer in London!

Richmond University welcomes you to take part in our International Summer School where students participate in a range of 3 week or 6 week classes, as well as our internship programme, in a wide range of disciplines for credit and/or personal development.

The Summer School is held at our Kensington campus, one of London's most prestigious areas, between May and July 2019. Study with students from all over the world and take full advantage of what London has to offer, as learning does not begin or end in the classroom.

Popular class choices include:

- Foundations in Photography
- Museums & Galleries of London*
- Historical London*
- Digital Marketing & Social Media
- Modern Popular Music
- Critical Globalization Studies
- Science Fiction Film: Cowboys and Aliens
- British Fantasy

* These classes undertake visits to locations across London, such as to the V&A Gallery, British Museum, Spitalfields markets, Greenwich Maritime Museum and many more.

Programme Fees:
£1,500 for each 3 credit class
