DURATION: 2 Hours

TYPE OF ACTIVITY: Motivational Talk

SPEAKER DETAILS: Ms SnoopaMadathyanathu, Managing Director, Inboon Media

THRUST AREA: (DEPENDS ON THE QUARTER)

MODE OF CONDUCT: Offline

VENUE: BSc Botany Lab

NO: OF BENEFICIARIES/ PARTICIPANTS: 57

NO OF STUDENT PARTICIPANTS:50

NO OF FACULTY: 7

TOTAL EXPENDITURE:

Amount given to Resource Person/ planning/ designing Brochure:	Source of fund:
2000	Botany Association Fund

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAMME:

To hear how Ms Snoopa built her company, and the hurdles she had to face and how she overcame it and became successful in her field. And to be inspired to have entrepreneurial skills and financial independence as a woman in society.

ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION:

Ms Snoopa is an alumna of the botany department. She talked about her personal story and struggles. She also spoke about how her time in St Teresa's College helped her gain confidence as a woman. After she completed her BSc, she joined a central government job. Then she quit her job to take MSc and then did a course in fisheries.

She began her PhD but did not complete it. She joined another company as a microbiologist, where she also used her free time to learn about the other sectors in her office, which eventually led her to be the GM of the company. She, along with 4 partners, initially started a company, which was a success at first but eventually failed.

Later, when she became a mother, she resigned from her job, and started a company to gain financial independence. This became a huge success. She said that she struggled a lot during the building up of her company, she had to spend a lot of time, and sacrifice sleep, as well as had to deal with the comments from her family as to why she was doing this instead of the well paid, secure job in her previous company.

OUTCOME OF THE ACTIVITY:

Students learned about how entrepreneurship is quite a bit of struggle but how much it influences and positively impacts your life and that mindset outweighs the difficulties by constantly persisting through the hardships.

FEEDBACK RECEIVED FROM GUESTS AND PARTICIPANTS:

The students were inspired and motivated by Ms Snoopa's words.

BROCHURE:

The brochure is for a motivational talk titled "MY STORY" on entrepreneurship, organized by the Institution Innovation Council (IIC) and the Department of Botany and Centre for Research at St. Teresa's College (Autonomous), Ernakulam. The speaker is Ms. Snoopa Madathyanathu, Managing Director of Inboon Media. The event is scheduled for 12.10.2022 at 2:15 PM in the B.Sc. Lab, Botany Department. The brochure also lists the convener, student coordinators, and staff coordinators.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAMME:

To design a conceptual and feasible presentation of innovative ideas for pollution control.

ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION:

The inter-departmental ideathon competition was organized as part of pollution control day celebrations to encourage students to design innovative ideas for pollution control. A total of eight entries were received, out of which 2 presentations pitched innovative ideas to tackle air pollution and 6 of them presented ideas to reduce plastic litter. The entries were evaluated by Dr.SarithaChandran A. (Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry) and Mrs. Minu Pius (Assistant Professor, Department of Physics). Presentations that proposed ideas to tackle air pollution through creation of vertical wall mini forest and mushroom gardens using dry leaf litter, shared the first prizes. The proposal that presented an idea to degrade plastics using bacteria and plants was selected for second prize.

OUTCOME OF THE ACTIVITY:

Helped spread awareness about pollution control day among students and encouraged them to come up with innovative ideas to tackle plastic menace, air pollution etc.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAMME: The main objective of the program was to impart a basic idea on the entrepreneurial path through research. The main focus was given to PG students and the talk showed that they can choose a different career other than teaching or research. The program's goal was to make the students aware about the potential of the market where the research leads to products helpful to the community.

ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION: The program was attended by the III UG, II PG students of Chemistry and physics departments, St Teresas College. The students got a vivid idea about patents, also what is the difference between invention, discovery, innovation and creativity. The resource person, Prof.Suresh C Pillai, showed examples of products developed in the lab. The program's goal was to make the students aware about the potential of the market where the research leads to products helpful to the community.

OUTCOME OF THE ACTIVITY: The speaker's sparkling words ignited the students' interest in the field of innovation and how their research can lead to products which may help the community. The presentation language was so simple and vivid that students could easily follow it and gain an understanding of how different research fronts work. The session was very interactive. Students gained deep understanding of how patents work and how their research work can lead to product development and further to market thus serve community.
